

Certificate of Attendance

MENTORING AUTISTIC STUDENTS IN HIGHER EDUCATION

Jenn Layton Annable

attended one day in house training

(forming part of Disabled Students Allowances mentoring qualifications outlined by the Department for Education, 2019)

Personal Perspectives from mentees

Deepening mentoring approaches for autistic people

Mental health and autistic people

Action Planning

Reasonable adjustments

Working with families

Autism, gender identity and how it affects the mentoring relationship

Caroline Lear

19 December

2019 bridge mentoring

community interest company

*Awarded by:
Bridge Mentoring Community Interest Company
Company Number: 12194950 (Registered in England and Wales)*